BUILDING COMMISSIONER—Dan Wilson reported that there is a major construction project at 855 Rolfe and the contractor/owner did not put the proper barrier around the yard and the downspout drainage was not in the proper location. It was making quite a mess for the neighbor at 849 but since has been resolved. He will keep an eye on this project. Secondly, he recently issued 4 fence permits for 1 complicated project. It involved 4 neighbors. Somehow the resident wanting the fence, 808 Bricken Pl. managed to talk his neighbors into helping him get the project Okayed. Lastly, after all the fencing projects lately, he and the City Attorney plan on updating the fencing code in the near future.

PARK COMMISSIONER (ACTING)—Gordon Gosh, submitted the attached report. He also thanked and congratulated everyone that was involved in putting the Fall Festival together. He thought it was the best one yet.

TENNIS COMMISSIONER—Mark Boland said the resurfacing of the play and tennis court has begun. He said it looked like they may have to shave more bumps down than they already have. After a short discussion it was decided to meet tomorrow morning when the contractor arrives to discuss it.
